Edison's Great Line

That Old Hope Well

Fabulous 'John Henry'

Today's Quotation

The law is good, if a man use it lawfully.

—First Epistle to Timothy

I had never thought of Thomas Edison as a phrase-maker. You don't associate literary art with so industrious a man. Edison, one of the all-time greats in the world of invention and machines, worked right up to his death at 84. And the other day I came across his explanation.

"The pleasure of idleness," said Edison, "is one of the great superlatives of the world."

The longer I thought about that the more I weighed the possibility that the man who invented the electric lamp might have made his mark as a philosopher, too.

A man with Edison's gift for discovering new gadgets and making them work has, of course, an advantage over the rest of us. Ordinary men have to travel to see the world; but the fame of his works brought the whole world to Edison's door.

And yet his remark — that worship of leisure is really a superstition, not a valid goal — strikes home to everyone. Men who claim to be professional writers take up a whole book to explain how busy people look forward to a workless utopia, and then find it empty. Thomas Edison said it all in a line.

They tell us the ancients piled one city on top of another until the ultimate ruins were several cities deep — but the ancients had nothing on Hope, only a little over 75 years old.

The city street department tackling a sink in the pavement of the alley alongside Duffie Hardware store discovered there was water under the paving, and — as you read in last night's Star — found it came from a well. Before the street department got through with it, Managing Editor Paul Jones reported, the well proved to be 61 feet deep.

While this isn't official, I gathered from the conversation when I visited the "discovery" that today's street department thinks somebody did a mighty fast paving job a generation ago — laying concrete right over a well. The presumption is that the pioneer boys shoveled gravel into the hole, but the job proving endless, they went ahead and paved, figuring no one would ever know.

Well, the ancients piled up six cities, one on top of the other, and eventually someone found them all.

Here's something about a fabulous Southern character. I quote: "I Works and I Ramble" and I Gits All Around!

(From Atlanta Journal)

A truck fallen in a ditch outside Houston, Texas, was burning. The driver was trapped in the cab. Officers, workmen and a wrecking crew stood helpless. A giant Negro walked out of the night. "You need a little help," he asked. He strode to the truck, placed his hands on the door and tore it off. He climbed into the cab, planted his feet on the floor and shoved his neck and shoulders against the top. His shirt sleeves split as his muscles bulged. The crowd groaned as his huge back lifted.

Then the top bowed out, the seat buckled down and the dash broke under the pressure. The driver fell free and the Negro stepped to the ground. Without a word, he disappeared into the night. "Who was he?" they asked, peering after him.

Who was he? Lawd, Lawd, don't they know? Him with a cotton hook in his hand. Him with a hammer that shines like silver. Don't they know a natchal man when he comes ramblin'? Lawd, Lawd, don't they know John Henry?

Some folks say John Henry is only a legend, like Paul Bunyan and his Blue Ox. But down in the Mississippi bottoms, they know him. The rivermen say he was a giant and he staggered the cotton bales free-top tall. The labor gangs say when driving in the railroad spikes the earth shook. They say John Henry tried to outhammer a steam drill, and that killed poor John Henry. Folks don't rightly know what happened, but some tell the story that he died with his hammer in his hand.

It ain't so. He's still a natchal man. He still gits all around. "Who was he?" the people out in Texas asked, peering after him and speaking sort of low. "What became of him? Where did he go?" Lawd, Lawd, John Henry!

Axe Is Out for 'Plush Living' Officers Abroad

Washington, April 10 — Frigate Senators aimed an axe today at plush living quarters, free servants, special trains, and other luxuries for U. S. military personnel in overseas posts.

If the Pentagon fails to curtail "luxury living" by U. S. occupation forces in Germany, Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) told a reporter, Congress will find a way to do it. O'Mahoney is presiding at closed-door Senate hearings on the multi-billion-dollar annual defense money bill. He said he probably will offer an amendment calling for an end to free servants and special trains to recreation centers for U. S. military forces in Germany.

Two Republican members of the subcommittee, Ferguson of Michigan and Young of North Dakota, said in separate interviews they will support O'Mahoney.

"The American taxpayers are paying the costs for all these civilian employees of the military in Germany and elsewhere either directly or indirectly," Young said. Young said the Pentagon in formed him that 17,200 German servants "or quarters attendants" were being used by the military last Oct. 31 at an average pay of $57.50 a month.

"That's some $600,000 a month or six million a year," he said. Young said he learned the armed forces in Japan had hired women secretaries in Australia and supplied them with free Japanese maids, quarters and transportation to and from Japan. He said free servants for military and civilian workers in Japan ended last July 1.

Ferguson said extravagant living in occupied countries "by our representatives is bad public relations" and "it also tends to soften up our armed forces."

Sen. Douglas (D-Ill.) said the "high living of military personnel abroad, particularly in occupied countries, not only is a source of great expense but produces resentment and hatred."

All four senators expressed surprise at a report by Chauncey G. Parker, retiring assistant U. S. high commissioner for Germany, that the Army refused to give up free servants, special trains and other luxury items in Germany.

ASKED TO BE MANAGER—Charles M. White, president of Republic Steel Corp., has been asked by Secy. of Commerce Charles Sawyer to "accept appointment as operating manager for the United States for the steel plants seized." President Truman ordered Sawyer to take over the steel industry after negotiations between steel workers and management broke down and strike was about to go into effect.

Picket Lines Appear in Four Arkansas Cities

By The Associated Press

Teams of striking Western Electric telephone installers threw picket lines around four big exchanges in Arkansas Wednesday, and more of the same hit-and-run tactics were on tap for Thursday.

The picket lines pulled telephone operators and clerical workers out of Southwestern Bell Telephone Company exchanges in Little Rock, Conway, Hot Springs and Pine Bluff for brief intervals Wednesday. But normal service was resumed Wednesday night when the pickets were withdrawn.

The pickets are not striking against Bell. But the Western Electric strikers and Bell employees are members of the same union—CIO Communications Workers of America. Western Electric is an equipment subsidiary of Bell.

Jack Brashear, Arkansas vice president of the CIO-CWA, said Wednesday night after the picket lines were withdrawn that "Everything is back to normal in the state of Arkansas now."

Then he added: "Of course, I can't say how long it's going to be that way."

Brashear would not comment as to where and when his pickets would strike Thursday since secrecy is part and parcel of the hit-and-run technique.

Strikers must use their present strategy because there aren't enough of them to picket all Bell exchanges. Only about 100 Western Electric members of the CWA actually are on strike in the state. CWA members employed by Bell walked out in sympathy with the strikers, who are seeking higher wages. About 2,000 Arkansas employees of Bell are CWA members.

In all picketed exchanges supervisory employees worked to keep partial service going Wednesday. Local service was not affected in Little Rock where the dial system is used, but manually operated exchanges in Hot Springs, Pine Bluff and Conway were hit hard.

Eight supervisors went on duty in Pine Bluff when the operators walked out. Only emergency calls were handled during the afternoon. The same pattern existed in Hot Springs, but the pickets remained on the line only two hours in Conway. The last line to be withdrawn was lifted in Little Rock at 6:45 p. m.

A 7-day construction shutdown on the government's secret multi-million-dollar project near Pine Bluff ended yesterday.

The AFL Hodcarriers and Common Laborers staged a walkout April 2 with the AFL Carpenters, Joiners and Millwrights, the laborers because they hadn't received a pending wage increase and the carpenters in a jurisdictional dispute.

City Time Is Off From Three to Five Minutes

Although most Hope people don't know it, their clocks are running from three to five minutes ahead of the rest of the nation.

This has been evident particularly since the Western Union strike started several days ago. The city has been operating its local light plant on Western Union time but switched to railway time today at 11 o'clock.

The time element, not important in many instances is to postoffices, industries and particularly to the local radio station. So if you want to set your clocks correctly listen to KNAR — they will announce the correct time throughout the day.

Negotiators Make No Move Toward Peace

Munsan, Korea, April 10 (AP)—For the fifth straight day truce negotiators made no move toward ending the fighting in Korea.

They met and adjourned. That was all. Today's session lasted six minutes. That brought the grand total for five minutes this week to 30 minutes and 30 seconds.

Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang said Thursday the Communists had no objection to moving truce supervision negotiations back from the sub-delegation level to the staff officer level if the Allies want to do it. Wednesday Maj. Gen. William K. Harrison said the Allies have no objection to such a move if the Reds want to do it.

But neither side said it wanted to do that—or anything else. Each side appeared to be waiting for the other to take the initiative.

"If they want to," Harrison said after Thursday's session, "They can solve the problems just as well in sub-delegation meeting as in staff officers meetings."

That was a lot more than he said in the meeting. In the session he spoke only two words. When Hsieh suggested a recess until 11 a. m. Friday (8 p. m. THURSDAY, EST), Harrison said "I agree."

The meeting was stretched out to six minutes—third longest of the week—by a prepared statement from Hsieh. He said the way to settle everything was for the United Nations Command to agree to what the Communists wanted.

What the Reds want is the privilege of repairing military airfields during an armistice and acceptance of Soviet Russia as a "neutral nation" to help police the truce. The Allies are strongly opposed to both.

One other major stumbling block stands in the way of an armistice—how to exchange military prisoners. Staff officers handling this problem have been in recess since April 4, presumably studying a new approach which may solve the question.

Court Ignores Plea for Quick Action on Suit Protesting Steel Seizure

TAFT WINS IN ILLINOIS—Jubilant workers at Taft Headquarters in Chicago crowd around Harold E. Oklahoma Is Center of Earthquake

Oklahoma City, April 10 (AP)—A survey of earthquake damage the day after the ground rumbled shows Oklahoma, the center of the disturbance, had only one casualty.

Mrs. Della Doshaw, 74, of Tulsa was cut and bruised by falling plaster at her home.

Otherwise, the damage seems confined to occasional cracked walls, falling bricks, sagging boards, and mental strain.

Oklahomans who had been in a state of continual fear since Tuesday evening when tornadoes swept sighted throughout the state, forgot about the weather quickly.

When the tremor was felt, some thought a bomb had exploded, a big truck had rumbled by, or someone was playing a practical joke.

W. H. Atkinson, a petroleum geologist, told reporters he took out earthquake insurance two months ago.

"That's one policy I'm glad I didn't collect on," he said.

On the lighter side, falling chips of plaster sent one woman scurrying upstairs.

"What in the world are you doing up here?" she demanded.

When he convinced her he didn't shake the house, she felt cheated.

"My first earthquake and I didn't know it happened," she moaned.

Mayor Allen Street of Oklahoma City called it a "good example of how quickly a major disaster could strike."

"Telephone lines," he said, "should be left open so emergency crews can be gotten together quickly. Turn on your radio and the answer to the question 'what happened will come quicker from that than anything else.'"

The quake was termed by seismologists as "moderately strong." It was felt in portions of six states.

Two Deaths Boost State Toll to 5

By The Associated Press
The deaths of two Crawford County farmers Wednesday boosted Arkansas' violent fatality toll for the week to five.

Everett Goines, 55-year-old farmer, died in a Van Buren hospital from injuries suffered when the tractor he was driving overturned and pinned him beneath it Monday.

Goines and another man were attempting to free the tractor from a mudhole on a farm north of Van Buren when it overturned.

A. C. Mullins, 53, was shot to death accidentally near his home in the Dean's Springs Community of Crawford County. Mrs. Daisy Hooker, county coroner, said his death was accidental. Deputy Sheriff Frank Neal said Mullins apparently slipped and fell on his 12-gauge shotgun.

Infantry Idle as Planes Hit Chinese

Seoul, Korea, April 10 (AP)—Allied infantrymen basked in warm spring sunshine today as U. N. aircraft hammered Red supply lines and installations in North Korea.

Action along the battlefront continued light. A U. S. Eighth Army briefing officer said Wednesday night, February, the 10 m. p. feature went above 20 for the first time this year Wednesday and continued warm Thursday.

Allied planes patrolled in clear skies Thursday morning, hitting rail lines and supply dumps. B-26 light bombers and Marine planes flew 75 sorties against Communist highways Wednesday night. Twelve B-29 Superforts made night attacks on Red rail bridges, railroad marshalling yards and troop concentrations behind the lines.

The Eighth Army announced that U. N. ground forces inflicted 2,000 Communist casualties last week. The claims listed 1,388 Reds killed, 1,124 wounded, and 48 taken prisoner.

Bitter Battle Looms: Mills Start Production

Washington, April 10 — A bitter battle loomed today over the government's plan to seize the steel mills.

Some legislators cried "usurper" at President Truman's plan to avert a nation-wide strike by seizing the steel mills.

The President himself, with a last special message to the lawmakers, to write his own law for handling such a situation if they did not like his idea.

The fight sprang out of a fight on Capitol Hill. Sen. (Minn.) frankly favoring the government's plan, price, rent and credit control program. Maybank charged President with a comedy of errors in handling the steel dispute, said he feared "these" had imperiled the whole control program.

2. A Senate Labor subcommittee headed by Sen. Hiram (Iowa) frankly favoring the government's plan, price, rent and credit control program. Maybank charged President with a comedy of errors in handling the steel dispute, said he feared "these" had imperiled the whole control program.

3. The Senate and House emergency war powers bill, 1, wrote into it a provision nothing in its language construed as authorizing seizure of privately owned plants except public utility.

Whether it could affect seizure remained in doubt. (D-Va.) introduced a resolution Congress to declare plant seizure illegal. But Ray (D-Mont.), chairman Senate Labor Committee on a bill to give the broader powers to seize as a strike settling device.

Missouri River Leaves More Homeless

By The Associated Press

The rampaging Missouri River forced more families from their homes in the Pierre, S. D., area today and threatened severe flooding in the capital city.

The big river was 5.4 feet above the 15-foot flood stage, with predictions of a 22.4 foot crest tomorrow. The downtown district of Pierre, a city of 5,700 population, and 20 residential blocks were in danger of the expected overflow.

Colder weather was reported in the flood area and in other parts of the Dakotas, where the Missouri and its tributaries have flooded. The "Big Muddy" continued its gradual drop at Bismarck, N. D., after hitting a 42-year flood crest Sunday, forcing 250 families from their homes.

Windy weather returned to some Western areas. Snow hit parts of Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado. Colder air extended over the northern and central Rockies, the Plains States as far south as Oklahoma and the Texas Panhandle and eastward to the upper Mississippi Valley. It was below freezing over most of the Dakotas.

Mild weather continued in the eastern and southern parts of the country.

Showers and thunderstorms hit areas from Upper Michigan and northwestern Wisconsin southwestward through Iowa and Kansas into Oklahoma and Texas. Several tornadoes were reported sighted in the air in northern and west central Oklahoma but there were no reports of the twisters causing any damage.

Board to Study need for Big Dam

Washington, April 9 (AP)—An army under advisement conflicting views on the need for a hydroelectric dam on the Eleven Point river at Water Valley, Ark.

One delegation from Arkansas and Missouri opposed the project at a hearing before the Rivers and Harbors Board here yesterday. Another group from Arkansas favored engineer review board has taken it.

The Eleven Point River flows through Oregon County, Mo., and Randolph County, Ark., emptying into Black River, which in turn empties into White River.

Congress in 1938 authorized construction of a flood control dam at Water Valley, and last December, army engineers approved its modification to develop power as the part of an overall White River development plan.

Originally planned as a 14 million dollar flood control project, Water Valley would cost $25,220,000 under the power generation proposal.

Opponents of the project contend that the proposed dam is not needed for flood control and that it would inundate some 48,000 acres of rich farm land and six towns.

Proponents, however, asserted that the project was part of the overall plan to protect the lower White from floods and that the amount of land which would be placed under water would be more than offset by the additional acreage protected.

Truman Order Puts Squeeze on Steel

By JAMES MAHLOW

Washington, April 9 (AP)—President Truman has put the steel industry in a tight squeeze which now makes it tough for it to buck the government.

1. Public opinion. His nationwide talk last night, explaining why he seized the mills, was also an appeal to public opinion against the industry.

He blessed the union's wage demands. And he condemned, 100 per cent, the companies' demands for permission to boost prices if they raise wages.

The President said the industry is making so much money it can afford to increase wages without increasing prices.

Now no company spokesman, if he tries to present the industry's side, can hope to compete with the President for public attention.

2. The legal fight. The companies said they fight government seizure all the way up through the courts. The court battle already has begun.

To go all the way up to the Supreme Court might take a year. By that time the dispute should certainly be over.

The industry will start with a lower court federal judge, asking for an order telling the government to abandon seizure.

If this happened before a settlement between the union and industry—the government called both sides to Washington today to try for a settlement—there'd be a strike.

But President Truman explained last night that his reason for seizing the plants in the first place was to prevent a strike, that a strike would be against the nation's welfare.

This puts on any judge who listens to the industry's plea the burden of deciding by himself—if he rules against the President—what is for the national welfare.

3. The big stick. Truman not only ordered Secretary of Commerce Sawyer to seize the plants but allowed him to "prescribe the terms and conditions of employment."

This would let Sawyer raise wages in accordance with recommendations by the Wage Stabilization

More Money for Arkansas Veterans

Little Rock, April 9 (AP)—The federal government has increased to $882,782 the amount of money it will spend on dental work for Arkansas veterans this year.

That was the report given the Arkansas Dental Association today by the chairman of its Veterans Affairs Committee, Dr. J. W. Brough of Little Rock.

He said the increase was 20 per cent above federal assistance of last year.

"We're still running out of money in Arkansas," said Dr. Brough, "but this increase will help."

"More and more veterans are applying for dental care."

Benton Votes in Parking Meters

Benton, April 9 (AP)—This Saline County seat has become the 32nd Arkansas city to approve installation of parking meters.

Benton voters approved installation of the meters in a special election yesterday. The vote was 375 for; 120 against.

Little Rock, April 9 (AP)—Concert Pianist Jose Iturbi will play a benefit performance for victims of the March tornadoes in Arkansas here April 22.

U. S. Casualties Now 107,134

Washington, April 9 (AP)—Announced U. S. battle casualties in Korea reached 107,134 today, an increase of 178 since last week.

Board.

Sawyer himself said he would not raise wages until there is a settlement. That's what he said last night. If this thing drags on and there is no settlement, he might, of course, change his mind and boost the pay.

If he does, the fat's in the fire for the industry. Then the company would be confronted with an accomplished fact whenever it got its plants back. So the authority given Sawyer is a tremendous pressure on the industry to come to terms with the union.

Tackett to Start Campaigning

Little Rock April 9 (AP)—Rep. David Tackett today will make his first public appearance in Arkansas since he announced for the Democratic nomination for governor.

The congressman is scheduled to address the Arkansas State Dental Association convention. Tackett returned to Little Rock today from Washington, and will spend the 10-day Easter vacation organizing his campaign.

Dr. Paul M. Hardage of Arkadelphia took over yesterday as president of the Association. Dr. Theron B. Smith of Little Rock was elected president-elect.

Other officers are: Dr. High Moseley, Warren, vice president; Dr. Don Hamm, Clarksville, secretary-treasurer; Dr. Marion Brown, Little Rock, sergeant-at-arms; and Dr. Claude Jernigan, Rector, editor of the Arkansas State Dental Journal.

Dr. Norman Grammer of Batesville and Dr. J. William Moore of Lonoke were named to the Executive Committee, and Dr. W. O. Finch of Jonesboro was elected to the Arkansas State Board of Dental Examiners.

World Court Delays Iran Oil Hearing

The Hague, The Netherlands, April 9 (AP)—The International Court of Justice announced today it has postponed for one month, at the request of Iran, a hearing of the Anglo-Iranian oil case.

The hearing had originally been fixed for May 6 when Premier Mohammed Mossadegh was expected to appear personally to challenge the court's jurisdiction. Britain has charged Iran's nationalization last year of holdings of the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil Company violated international law.

Steel Seizure Puts Controls Up to Test

Washington, April 9 (AP)—The wage-price controls program faced a major test for survival today in the wake of government seizure of the strike-threatened steel mills.

The Senate Banking Committee was called back into closed-door session this morning to try for some agreement on a bill to extend the Defense Production Act. This is the base on which the government's whole vast structure of economic controls rests.

Angry demands for scrapping the program were prompted by the steel wage negotiations, capped by President Truman's order last night for seizure of the industry to avert a walkout.

Chairman Maybank (D-SC) urged the committee to avoid "passion or the hysteria of the times" in its deliberations.

Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio) and Sen. Capehart (R-Ind.), members of the group, told a reporter they believe the weeks ahead will give the wage and price controls sections "their greatest test" and bring strong moves in Congress to ditch them.

Capehart said he believes the committee, or a companion House-Senate group—the Joint Committee on Defense Production—will call witnesses to explore handling of the steel dispute before making final recommendations on changing or continuing wage-price control powers.

The act will expire June 30, and send the entire controls program

Maryland Bans Write-in Names

Annapolis, Md. April 9 (AP)—Maryland voters won't be permitted a write-in ballot in the May 5 primary election. That's final.

Last week a Baltimore judge, ruling on suits filed by supporters of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, said write-ins would be permitted.

But late yesterday the Court of Appeals—the state's highest—said in a split decision that "there exists under the present election laws of Maryland no right to write in names at the primary election."

This means that in the presidential balloting, the Democrats will have two choices—Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) or an "uninstructed delegation" to the state convention that selects the 18 national convention delegates. One GOP presidential aspirant entered the state primary.

LOST FOR SCRAP

Montreal, April 9 (AP)—The Empress of Australia—once the pride of Canada's Pacific steamship fleet—has been sold for scrap to a British steel corporation.

After almost 20 years as a passenger liner, sailing out of Vancouver, the Empress spent her last years as a British troopship.

tripping unless Congress extends it or writes some successor law.

Sen. Bricker, a committee member, told a reporter the committee will receive demands that Congress strike from the measure all authority for wage and price controls.

Bricker said he would vote for such a proposal, adding "several of us feel that way."

Before the group is a demand by Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) that Congress force a shakeup of Wage Stabilization Board membership as a result of its handling of the steel wage dispute.

The board now is set up by law with 18 members, six each representing labor, management and the public. Dirksen has demanded that the public spokesmen be placed in absolute majority, and that the board be forbidden specifically to make any recommendations except on take-home wages.

In the steel case, the board recommended the union shop, which would require all employees to join a union, in addition to a 17-1/2-cent hourly wage increase and other proposals.

Sisters-in-Law Cop City Bridge Championship

In the finals of the Prescott open Bridge tournament held at the city hall the night of April 4th, Mrs. Tom Bemis and Mrs. Herve Bemis won a spinetkles set from Mr. and Mrs. Bob Reynolds. The champs with Mrs. Herve Bemis curbing her penchant for double trouble and Mrs. Tom Bemis liberalizing her somewhat conservative bidding triumphed on the last deal over inspired play by the Reynolds twain.

The sisters-in-law, long time opponents of Ely and Josephine Culpeper, claim that their victory shows that the method of Goren and Jacoby can never surpass those of the masters of the one over one. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robey won the consolation match for third place over Mr. and Mrs. Tillam Worthington. Due to the sensational success of the tourney and intense interest, a Prescott duplicate bridge league will be formed. Since only 16 pairs can enter the two divisions of this league couples hoping to enter should contact Al Williams, secretary.

Montgomery Asked to Testify

Washington, April 9 (AP)—The House Agriculture Committee today called on Robert Montgomery, radio and television commentator, to back up his assertion that the United States has wasted 200 million dollars fighting a non-existent outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease in Mexico.

Rep. Poage (D-Tex.) joined Committee Chairman Cooley (D-NC) in demanding that the former movie star produce any facts he has to bolster his contention in recent broadcasts that a five-year U. S. campaign against the livestock scourge has been an unnecessary "boondoggle."

Cooley contends the campaign was absolutely necessary to protect the U. S. cattle industry, and that the cost was small compared with damage that would have resulted if the disease had become established in this country.

Poage said that, for one thing, Montgomery had exaggerated the government's outlay by some 77 million dollars.

"But that's not the most serious charge," the Texas said. "It's his contention that none of the expense was warranted."

Poage said he was prepared to dispute Montgomery's argument that the quarantine against Mexican cattle, due to be removed next Sept. 1 if there are no new outbreaks, could be held responsible for raising the price of meat in this country to unwarranted levels.

"Actually the price of meat isn't disproportionately high in comparison with wages and other prices," Poage told a reporter.

Cooley declared the diagnosis of the Mexican epidemic as foot-and-mouth disease is unquestioned among scientists.

Mrs. Tom Bemis, president, presided and opened the meeting with prayer. Mrs. Logan conducted the Bible study on Colossians which was followed with sentence prayer.

Reports of the secretary, treasurer, general officers and chairmen of committees were heard. Plans for Presbyterian were discussed.

Mrs. Allen Gee, circle chairman presented the circle business. Mrs. W. G. Bensberg had charge of the conversation period on "To Talk About Higher Education." The meeting adjourned with the mizpah benediction.

A delicious salad course was served to the twenty members.

It was Poore's second marriage; his bride's third.

APPROVES TREATY

Lima, Peru, April 9 (AP)—Peru's Congress ratified the peace treaty with Japan last night.

Finay Wins Financial Battle

Paris, April 9 (AP)—Premier Antoine Pinay won his no compromise fight last night to finance France's 10-billion-dollar budget without new taxes. The National Assembly approved his plans in a series of 10 confidence votes.

Final vote on the budget as a whole, which provides almost four billion dollars for France's war in Indochina and her contribution to North Atlantic defense, was 311 to 266.

Pinay had said he would resign unless all nine of his proposals and the entire budget were approved.

The parliamentary outcome was good news for France's partners in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The Assembly had voted down proposals by two previous governments to get the 1932 of future tax frauds coupled with a pardon to those who have cheated budget money, raising grave fears on taxes in the past.

Want a lot of mileage for your money?

We'll admit that the price tags of automobiles—all automobiles—aren't what they used to be.

But it's just as true today as ever before that some price tags are lower than others, and some cars cost less to own than others.

So let's see how a Buick SPECIAL fits into the picture.

Take first cost. If you put the price tag of this Buick against price tags of cars that have always been tagged as belonging in "the low-priced field"—you'll find that, in actual dollars, a Buick's surprisingly close to these cars of lesser size and horsepower.

But that's just the beginning.

What you're getting here is Buick quality—this SPECIAL comes down the same assembly line as SUPERS and ROADMASTERS.

Its heft tells you it has extra sturdiness in frame and structure.

Its Fireball Engine delivers extra power. It is an eight, a valve-in-head, with high compression, and the miles you can get from a gallon of gas make it a thrifty performer.

You get Buick's Million Dollar Ride, which protects you—and the car—from jars and jolts.

Even the tires are bigger—which, any tire man will tell you, lengthens their wear.

And if you pay a bit extra for Dynaflow Drive* you're easing the strain on the engine, the rear end, the tires—and eliminating clutch repair bills.

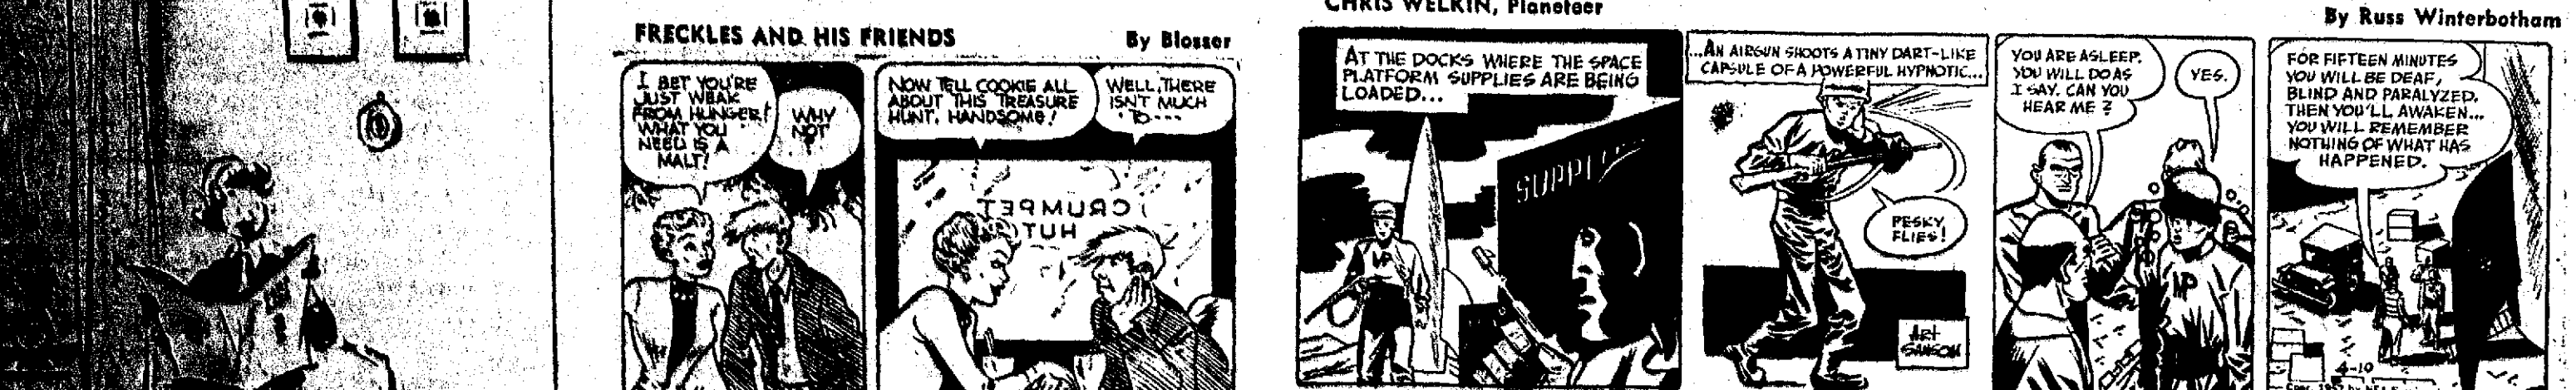

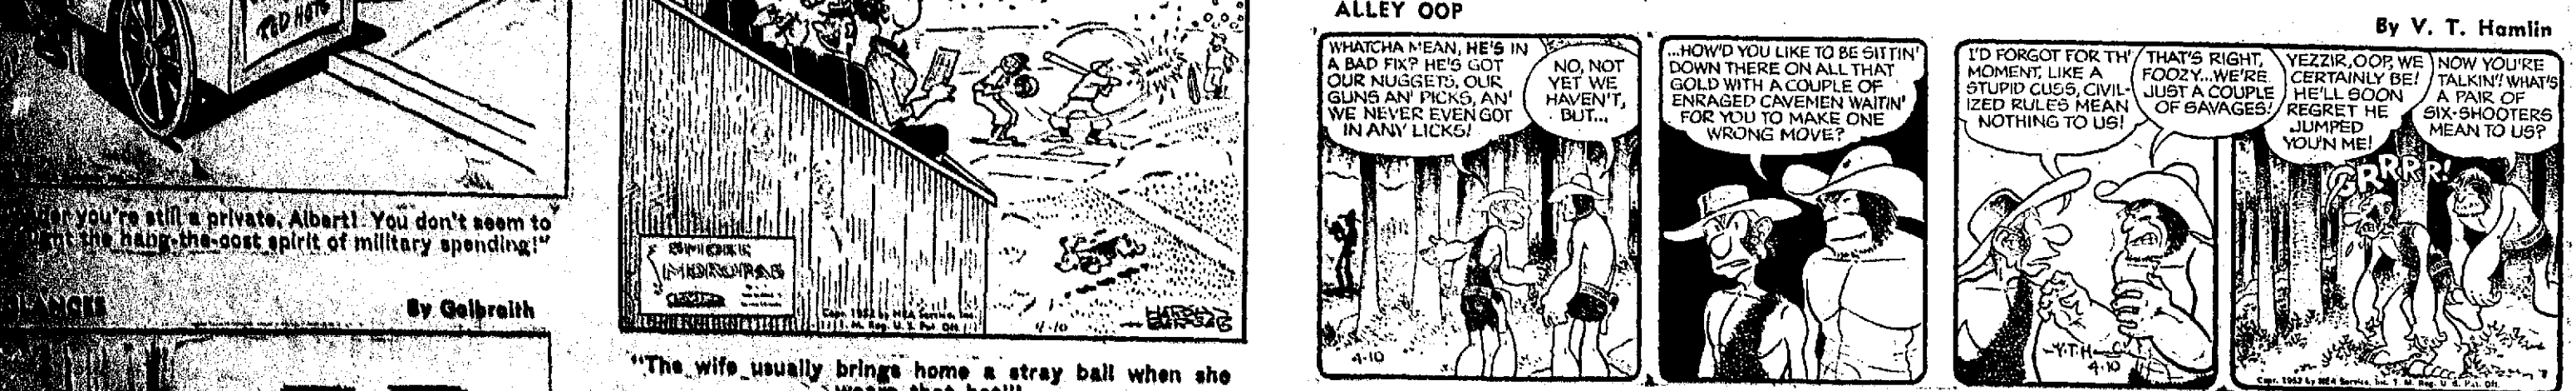

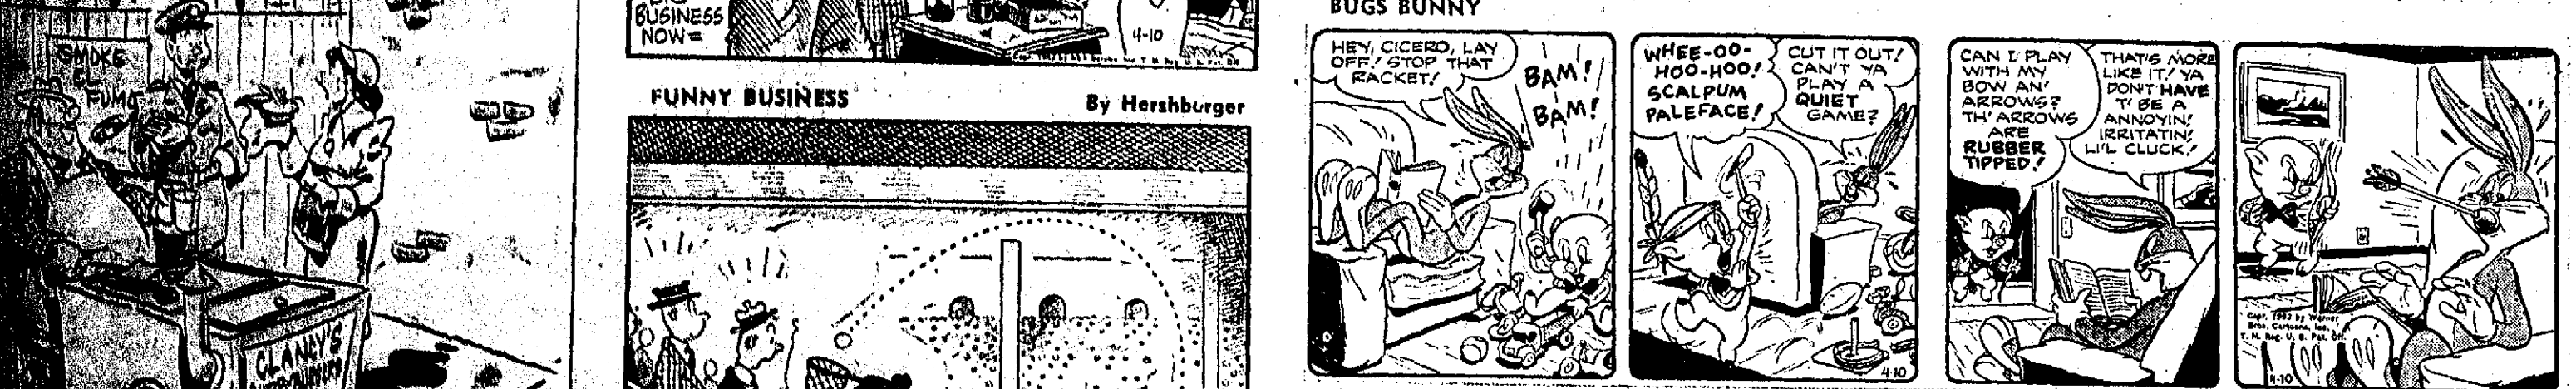

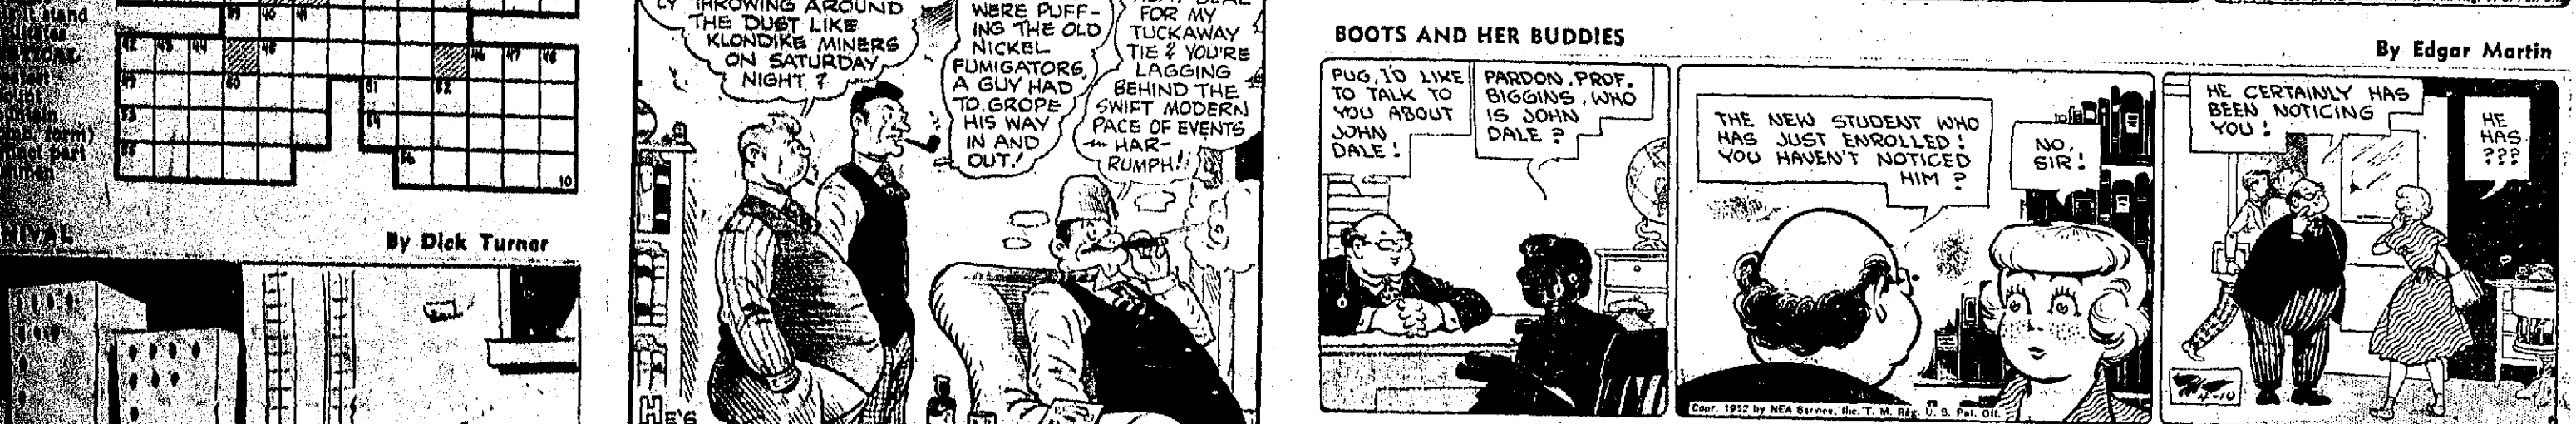

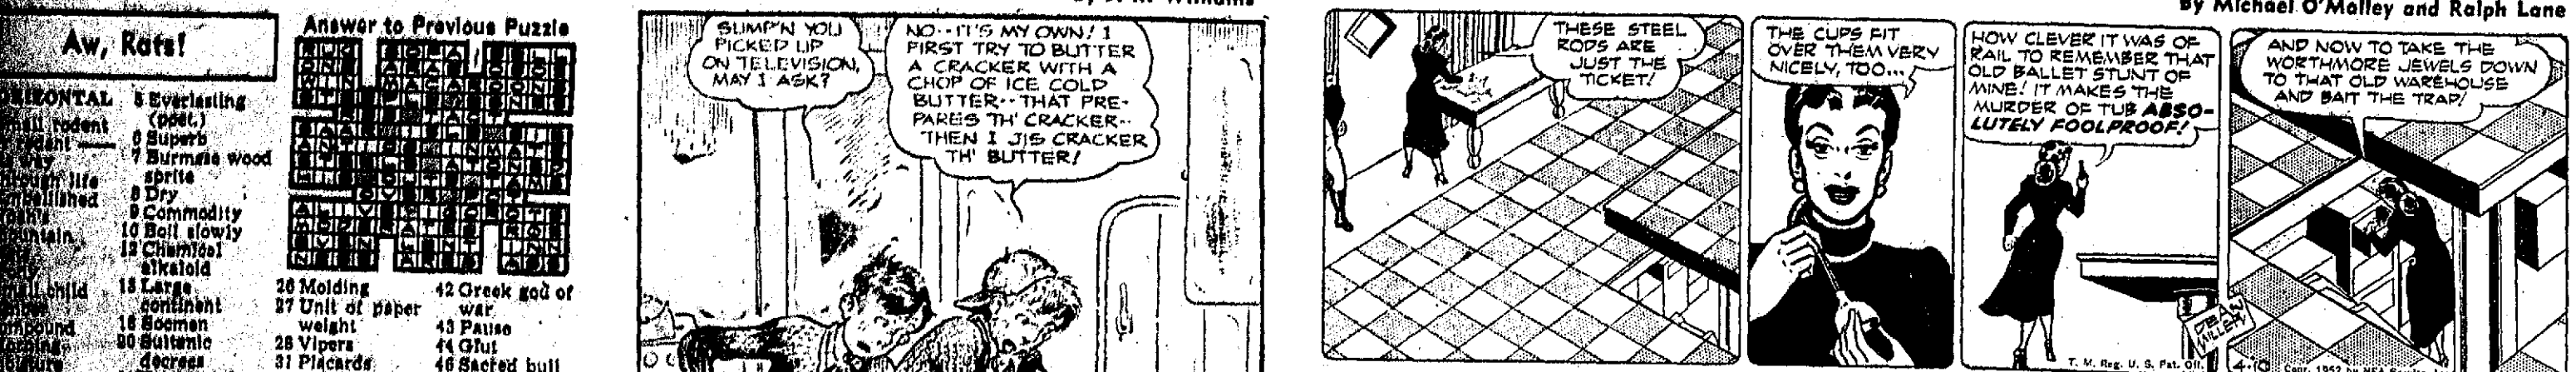

So when we talk about "mileage for your money" we're talking about the miles you'll get from your car—counting the unused miles that are left over when you have to sell when you trade in.

Maybe that's why Buick's doing so well in the present market. When you buy Buick, you see what a great car this is.

Equipment, accessories, tires and more are available on other Buicks. Buick is a complete line of cars. *Standard on ROADMASTERS, optional on SPECIAL.

Purchasing Act Opponents Protest

Little Rock, April 9 (AP)—Opponents of a popular vote on controversial purchasing act 242 of 1951 have suffered a defeat in the Arkansas Supreme Court.

Wayne Upton, special court commissioner hearing the case, ruled yesterday that signatures on affidavits were not admissible as evidence.

Attorneys for the two Pulaski County taxpayers challenging validity of petitions to refer the so-called "liberalized" new purchasing act to the November election wanted to introduce the signatures. The signatures are those of persons who said they did not sign the petitions for referral, but whose names appeared on the petitions.

Hearings in the case, an original action before the Supreme Court, have been carried on intermittently for several weeks. The hearings will be resumed Friday.

Although rubber is native to tropical America, most natural rubber comes from plantations in Asia and adjacent islands.

Lodge said the Dirksen cable did not reach him before he left Paris last night.

After listening to a reporter's reading of the questions, Lodge declared:

"It's a pleasure to expect a man who is in a military headquarters without a staff of political advisers to give offhand answers to tricky questions."

"When Senator Dirksen asks questions like that, it's just a political trick and it makes him undignified and he should not do it." Dirksen's cable pointed out that "Senator Taft's position on all of the eight national issues are well known," and asked for Eisenhower's attitude toward:

The Taft-Hartley law, increase or reduction in Social Security benefits, government spending, a compulsory federal fair employment practices commission, Truman's foreign policy and military spending, tax rates, the Brannan plan

Rosenbergs Denied New Hearing

New York, April 9 (AP)—The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals has denied petitions by condemned atom spies Julius and Ethel Rosenberg for a new hearing on their appeals.

Their counsel, following the appeals court action yesterday, moved to stay the tribunal's mandate to the case could be carried to the U. S. Supreme Court. A hearing on the motion was set for next Monday.

Rosenberg, 34, and his wife, 38, were sentenced to death last year after a Federal Court jury found them guilty of conspiracy to transmit Atomic Bomb secrets to Russia during wartime. Their death sentences were the first meted out by a civil court to civilians under the Espionage Act of 1917.

Last Feb. 25 the appeals court upheld the conviction and sentence. The Rosenbergs' vain appeal for a re-hearing was a step in their fight to carry the case before the Supreme Court.

Would Elect a Progressive

New York April 9 (AP)—Gov. Earl Warren told a Republican dinner audience last night that the party should nominate a progressive presidential candidate who would not "turn back the clock" even if he could do so.

"We cannot reply upon an 'against' campaign to win the election in November," he said.

"We must convince the American people that we are thinking in terms of forward action for their welfare. We must not be afraid of the word 'welfare.'"

"We must not shrink from the known needs for social progress. We must have our own programs and move forward in the spirit of evolution and progress."

Plants Bring Need to Reroute Roads

Little Rock, April 9 (AP)—Arkansas Highway Director Olen Fullerton said today two road projects to serve a growing industrial area of Central Arkansas are under "serious consideration."

They are relocation of Highway 270 between Hot Springs and Malvern and surfacing of Highway 88 as an alternate route between Benton and Hot Springs.

He addressed more than 1,000 persons at the annual $100-a-plate dinner of the New York County.

Arkansas Community Building Plan is being Acclaimed Nationally"

Well, sir, there's some mighty proud folks at Paragould, Cotton Plant and Crawfordsville these days.

They're proud because their cities won first prizes in their classes during the "Build At Home" program of the state. What's more, the whole nation applauded them for it!

Now, creating better communities for folks to live in is something to be proud of. And, another thing our home folks are proud of is that their friends and neighbors voted overwhelmingly last year to continue legal sales of beer, the beverage of moderation.

They approve the progressive spirit of the Brewing Industry and the volunteer program of malt beverage retailers who regulate themselves, assuring that good beer and ale are sold in clean, wholesome, law-abiding establishments.
